ReNYlet 3/31/59.

On 7/29/59, a fisur was instituted in the vicinity of [REDACTED] residence, [REDACTED] by SAs JOHN J. MATTIMORE and THOMAS M. SULLIVAN.

[REDACTED] was observed to leave the apartment house in the company of an unknown woman. They walked together to a nearby subway station whereupon the woman entered the subway and [REDACTED] walked west on [REDACTED] in the direction of his employment. On [REDACTED] he was approached by SA SULLIVAN.

b7D

The agent greeted [REDACTED] and pointed out he was being recontacted to determine if he had given any consideration to what had previously been discussed. [REDACTED] stated he had nothing to discuss and didn't appreciate being contacted by the FBI. He explained that it upsets him physically at which time he held up his hands which were shaking. The agent assured [REDACTED] there was nothing to be alarmed about that we were merely contacting him to seek his cooperation. He was reminded of the freedoms and liberties enjoyed here in the United States and the fact he didn't have to talk to the SMI. It was pointed out that in Communist controlled countries such liberties are probably not enjoyed by the citizens. The agent further explained that the interview was strictly a matter between him and the FBI and that we wanted to talk to him privately so as not to embarrass him in any way with his fellow workers or neighbors.

ORIGINAL FILED IN

[REDACTED] then stated he would do anything for his country and that he always had the interest of the United States at heart. He added that he had served in the armed forces in World War II, that he had stuck his neck out and had been shot at during the course of the war. The agent reminded him that if he was sincere he could start right now, assisting his country in view of his background and experience. At this point [REDACTED] stated that the CP in the United States was no real threat to the country.

When [redacted] belittled the importance of the CP in the United States the agent reminded him that there were still many people here who wouldn't hesitate to undermine our institutions. It was pointed out that although membership figures may have decreased there are still many current and former members of the CP who represent a threat to our security. The agent advised [redacted] that it is the responsibility of the FBI to know everything possible concerning any organization that might prove detrimental to our country.

When asked if he was currently a member of the CP, [redacted] admitted that he is not now a member. When asked to state when he joined the CP, how long he had been a member or when he had dropped out, [redacted] stated his only concern now was working and earning for his family. He added that he wanted to wash his hands of the whole business. The agent encouraged [redacted] to discuss at length his CP background; however, [redacted] could only repeat that he was not currently a member of the CP.

The agent again reminded [redacted] of the importance of cooperation with the FBI. [redacted] stated that the FBI not only seeks out information to help the country prosper, but also to help the people prosper. [redacted] stated that he would be convinced that it is the duty of the citizen to help the FBI in such matters; however, he wanted to discuss it further.

EVALUATION OF INTERVIEW

[redacted] was very nervous and reluctant to cooperate in the interview. He stated that he is not a member of the CP, but he wanted to wash his hands of the whole business. [redacted] stated that he would be convinced that it is the duty of the citizen to help the FBI in such matters; however, he wanted to discuss it further.

On 8/6/59. at approximately 2:00 PM, SAS GERHARD P. HUNDT and [redacted] contacted the subject under secure conditions.

Subject greeted the agents in a courteous manner but it was obvious he was disturbed about something. In a short time, he volunteered that he had just returned from New York City where he had been interrogated by the HCUA. He stated he had previously been subpoenaed. He indicated that he had not cooperated with the committee but was not specific. He indicated his extreme disapproval of and disgust at having been subpoenaed. He implied that he considered it a hostile act designed to intimidate him. He implied that he would have appeared voluntarily if he had been requested to do so and that a subpoena was entirely unnecessary.

The agents carefully and emphatically explained that the FBI had in no way initiated the HCUA action and had no official connection with such action. [redacted] did not contest these statements and appeared to be satisfied.

b7D The agents briefly reviewed the information previously furnished by [redacted] regarding his attitude regarding the CP and its policies. He was reminded he had previously claimed that he would be more effective against the Party by working apart from the FBI. He was reminded of his plans to [redacted] his experiences and conclusions. It was observed that he had not, as yet, started his independent action but that if he was to do so, he would need current information regarding the CP if he was to [redacted] authoritatively. information regarding the CP. He was advised that in view of his current attitude, it would appear he could help us at the same time he gathered information for himself.

 did not disagree with any of the above remarks except to say that he intended to write from an historical point of view, would not re-enter the CP, and had no intention of seeking current information. He said he felt confident he could accurately predict how current CP members would react under a given set of circumstances and had no need of current detailed information.

Since  previously had emphasized how contemptuously he would feel toward anyone who would take money to assist the FBI, the subject of financial compensation was not approached.

 appeared to have given the entire matter considerable thought and seemed to be quite firm in the attitudes he expressed.

The contact was cordially terminated by the Special Agents at 3:05 PM.  was very friendly and stated that his entire attitude toward the FBI had been changed by the conversations with the agents.

Evaluation

In view of the unfortunate coincidence regarding the HCUA subpoena, it is not felt that further attempts to interview the subject should be made at this time.

After a reasonable period of time, additional efforts might be considered.

This case is being closed administratively.

Re Newark letter to Bureau dated 6/26/59 and Bureau authority to interview subject dated 7/7/59.

During July, 1959, the subject was surveilled approximately 12 times on his way to and from work in an effort to contact him under secure conditions. All efforts were unsuccessful inasmuch as the subject is invariably accompanied by other persons. These conditions exist so frequently and so consistently that it is felt subject suspects he may be contacted and is making efforts to avoid it. This is not because he has detected efforts to contact him. If he does suspect, it was because of the large number of interviews now being conducted under this and other programs.

It is pointed out that the subject has never been closely involved in factionalist activities. He appears to be an orthodox Party member. For this reason, it is not felt his potential as an informant justifies continued efforts to contact him at the present time.

UACB, the Newark Office will discontinue its efforts to contact the subject at the present time and again attempt to contact the subject in approximately six months.

Government. He also stated that he still believed in socialism, that he believed in obtaining socialism only by means of the ballot, and that he did not think his views would ever change in this regard.

Agent FREYMAN then discussed in some length and very generally the history of the CP, USA, and pointed out that it had participated in the activities of the Communist International, sent students to Russia to study at the Lenin School, has always strictly followed the line of the CP, Soviet Union, even when that line made sharp turns, especially during the time of the Hitler-Stalin Pact. It was also pointed out to [redacted] that JIM JACKSON and GEORGE MORRIS have been lecturing on their attendance at the 21st Congress of the CP, Soviet Union, and that it is reasonable to conclude that they received instructions and guidance during their stay in the Soviet Union.

It was pointed out to [redacted] that even the reading of newspapers and periodicals in the United States reflects that there has been an intensification of communist activity in Central and South America. It is, therefore, apparent to any thinking man that at least circumstantial evidence exists to demonstrate that communism is a world-wide system, and that the CP, USA, is a part and parcel of this system. [redacted] was told that because [redacted] CP, USA, [redacted] to obtain information concerning international communism and the role played by the CP, USA, and the international conspiracy. It was suggested to him that since [redacted] to the first Smith Act trial that perhaps the top leadership of the CP, USA, had not confided in other members of the national leadership for the past several years in order to minimize the possibility of prosecution for conspiracy to overthrow the Government of the United States.

[redacted] stated that if he could first verify for himself, what was described to him as circumstantial evidence, he would consider going all the way in helping the United States Government in the investigation of communist activities.

[redacted] then said that there were some family matters which were preventing him from agreeing to assist the FBI at this time. He stated that he has [redacted] of them are residing in [redacted] his first wife. He said that in the future he would like to move to California in order to visit his [redacted] there more frequently. In addition, his brother, [redacted] was formerly a member of [redacted]

[redacted] He commented that in the past his activities had hurt both his brother and sister, and further communist activities on his part may cause them further financial losses through lost job opportunities.

[redacted] then said that at the present time he could not agree to testify nor does he feel that he could ever agree to testify. ~~though~~ he could not agree to assist the FBI. [redacted] was told that the purpose of asking for his assistance was not to obtain a witness at this time. Further, that the Government would not use a hostile witness, and that his sentiments in this regard would probably change as he demonstrated to himself the dangerousness of the communist movement to the American way of life.

[redacted] was again told that there is a need for his services in obtaining information at a [redacted] and this would include information concerning the international connections of the CP, USA. [redacted] was asked how he planned to ascertain for himself that the CP, USA, policy is or is not controlled by the CP, Soviet Union, and the international communist movement. He said that he would have to be re-elected to the [redacted] and this would be a difficult task since he lost a large number of national contacts because of his recent inactivity. [redacted] was asked if he had considered the possibility that the national leadership was not happy with the selection of [redacted] [redacted] members through the plan adopted at the 16th National Convention, and that an effort might be made to circumvent the constitution and elect all the [redacted] members at the National Convention. [redacted] admitted that he had not considered this possibility.
He was also asked if he had considered the possibility that he has created enemies through inactivity, or that the Party might consider him a "lost cause" because of his inactivity and failure to carry out assignments. At this point [redacted] said, "Maybe I do need help on this thing--I guess I have been inactive too long."

b7D

[redacted] also expressed concern that if he worked for the Government and was exposed he might be subjected to bodily harm. He was assured that the FBI would take every precaution possible to maintain his security and that if he were exposed it would be through his own doing and not through that of the FBI. He was also advised that his problems in regard to security as well as his personal problems would continue to be of vital concern to the FBI and that when confronted with such problems he should discuss them freely with the contacting agent.

At this point, [redacted] remarked that he has a lot of personal problems. He said that his wife, [redacted] had given him consent to reactivate in the CP during the past week provided that he would keep his position in [redacted] and would not operate as a full-time Party functionary. She also stated that she wanted to return to [redacted] on or about September 1, 1959, so that they would be able to get along financially. Concerning his financial problems, he said that he owed $600 in alimony to his first wife for the support of his [redacted] He said that he pays $80 a month alimony for nine months of the year and $100 per month in April, October and December.
His payments are in arrears since [redacted] had to quit working during pregnancy. He also stated that his monthly rent is $113, and that he was about to be evicted since he had been unable to raise the rent for the current month because his wife is unemployed. He said that he had been considering seeking loans from friends in the CP. He was then asked if the FBI could assist him in solving these financial problems.

b7D

After some deliberation and further discussion, [redacted] said that he would accept a loan and for the time being would accept monthly the amount he has to pay for the support of his [redacted] [redacted] and would also accept money for necessary expenses.

[redacted]

A plan of action for [redacted] was then discussed. It was decided that he would contact [redacted] and obtain from him details of the last meeting of the [redacted] and any documents issued at the meeting. Then he would study the written material, make discreet and carefully selected contacts with members in the leadership of the Illinois District, and would offer some suggestions concerning the Party documents prepared for the [redacted]. He also agreed to write to [redacted] who he described as his closest friend, and to [redacted] expressing regret that he was unable to attend the last [redacted] meeting and would also convey favorable comment on any resolutions adopted at the last [redacted] meeting. [redacted] also agreed to attend the meeting of the [redacted] of the CP of Illinois scheduled for August 9, 1959, and stated that he would strive to become the [redacted] the CP of Illinois. He agreed to discuss in advance with the contacting agent any change in these proposed plans.

b7D

It was agreed that the agent would meet [redacted] on July 29, 1959, in regard to the financial proposals. On July 29, 1959, he was given $600 with the understanding that it was a loan to be paid within two years. He was most appreciative and pledged full cooperation to the FBI. He stated that at the end of two weeks he would make a progress report which would include information he obtains in regard to the last meeting of the [redacted].

b7D

Observations

[redacted] has been contacted four times since February, 1959. The following observations are set forth for consideration in regard to future TOPLEV interviews:

(1) [redacted] indicated that he had initially agreed to engage in discussions because he had been approached by only one agent and at a secure place. At that time the only pointed questions asked concerned his current status in the CP. Later he stated that he was willing at that time to clarify his CP position as well as his wife's for the record, but that if any other questions had been asked he would have immediately discontinued the contact. The agent also promised that he would not disturb [redacted] at his home or place of employment.

(2) During the interviews [redacted] asked how long the agent had been with the FBI and the length of his experience in security work. He was told that it was 13½ years, and he commented that the agent should know this field well.

[redacted]

(3) It was suggested that [redacted] call the Chicago Office so as to avoid calls to his residence and place of employment. While [redacted] hesitated and this necessitated some calls to his place of employment he finally called the agent through the latter's secretary. It is believed that the knowledge that the contacting agent had a secretary made [redacted] feel that the agent had some official position and thus was speaking with some authority.

(4) The argument which seemed to impress [redacted] the most was that the CP, USA, is part of the international communist movement and that even [redacted] in the leadership of the CP, USA, probably had not confided in him with regard to details of the relationship of the CP, USA, with other CPs. [redacted] was made to consider the possibility that he had been deceived by persons in the top leadership of the CP, USA.

b7D

(5) It is believed that [redacted] was affected by the willingness of the Bureau to assist him in solving his financial problems in return for his assistance in the investigation of the international communist movement. While [redacted] has so far consented to accept only those sums needed for alimony payments and necessary expenses, based on past experience it is believed that this situation will gradually change and that it will be beneficial to the Bureau from the standpoint of control.

Recommendation

Assistant Director A. H. BELMONT telephonically and in Bureau airtel, dated July 28, 1959, authorized payment of up to $100 per week plus any necessary expenses. UACB it will be assumed that this authority is for a four-month period. Further authority for a long-term loan up to $1,000 was orally granted by Assistant Director BELMONT on July 28, 1959.

As late as April, 1959, subject is known to have disagreed with the National CP line regarding the abandonment of the classic "self-determination" principle. Subject sided with the [redacted] within the New Jersey CP.

Since April, 1959, there is no known CP activity on the part of the subject. His current position within the Party is unknown.

III. METHOD OF APPROACH

It is anticipated that the subject can be securely contacted after he leaves his residence en route to one of the places of employment during the day.

There is every indication that the subject was motivated to join the CP by his overwhelming interest in the problem of the negro.

[REDACTED] b7D

Efforts will be made to point out to [REDACTED] how the CP has failed to assist the negro.

The subject when approached and advised of the identity of the Agent, immediately asked the nature of the inquiry. When advised that the Agent would like to discuss with him the Communist Party (CP) and its policies, the subject stated that he knew nothing about the CP. He stated he had been contacted by FBI Agents previously and told them he had nothing to discuss and that he still has nothing to discuss with the Agent.

[redacted] was asked if he would care to discuss his own affiliations with the CP, and he replied that he has no connections with the CP. The subject was then asked if he ever had any connections with the CP, to which he replied that he considered that a personal question and that he had nothing more to say. The subject was asked one or two more questions, but he failed to answer and merely repeated each time that he had nothing more to say.

In view of the above, no further consideration is given to recontacting the subject, and the results of this interview will be incorporated in the next annual report submitted concerning the subject.

[redacted] at this point terminated the interview by walking from the Agents toward the building wherein he is employed. Before he departed however, [redacted] was again asked to think over the solicitation of cooperation made by the Agents. [redacted] did not reply to this request but merely shrugged his shoulders.

[redacted] though not cooperative, nevertheless did converse with the Agents. It is felt that he should be re-contacted at a future date. Accordingly, a tickler has been set up to recontact the subject in January 1960. -C-

SECURITY MATTER-C

On August 19, 1959, at approximately 6:10 P.M., [REDACTED] was observed, by SAs [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] to park his auto (1949 Oldsmobile, green, New York Registration [REDACTED]) in the vicinity of [REDACTED] New York.

[REDACTED] was alone and no other individuals were observed in the immediate area.

The Agents approached [REDACTED] who, although acknowledged their identity, proceeded to ignore the Agents by closing the windows in his car. It was evident that [REDACTED] suspected the identity of the Agents. When [REDACTED] alighted the Agents nevertheless identified themselves as SAs of the F I. [REDACTED] replied in an evasive and surly manner: "You are wasting your time, I have nothing to say to the F I".

b7D

Further efforts, to engage [REDACTED] in conversation and to enter his residence, were precluded by his evasive and hostile attitude. The interview was thus terminated.

In view of [REDACTED] obvious intent of not cooperating with the F I, based on his observed actions and statements, no recontact is anticipated at this time.

Re Bureau letter to New Haven, dated 7/16/59, captioned [REDACTED] SM - C; [REDACTED] SM - C, and New Haven letter to the Bureau, dated 7/1/59, under the same caption.

The following information is set forth concerning an interview of the subject, [REDACTED] on 8/13/59, by SA THURSTAL STALNAKER and SA EDWARD R. WHALEN:

b7D

I. METHOD OF APPROACH

Agents established through investigation that subject [REDACTED] frequently leaves his employment during the course of the day. Being self-employed, he is not required to follow any regular employment schedule.

On 8/13/59, at approximately 11:25 AM, the subject was observed to leave his place of employment and go nearby to the [REDACTED] located at the corner of [REDACTED]. The interviewing agents took a position in an area outside [REDACTED] and the subject's place of employment, where the subject was expected to pass, and in an area where there was very little traffic. He was approached by the agents at 12:02 PM, when he left the [REDACTED] carrying several books. He was alone when contacted and no one else was observed at the area at the time. He was interviewed until 12:38 PM.

II. SUBJECT'S REACTION

[REDACTED] showed absolutely no surprise when the agents identified themselves to him. He remarked that he 'rather expected' a contact. He, at first, demonstrated an attitude of not wanting to talk at all. When pressed further he would discuss matters of a general nature, but strictly within boundaries which he insisted on outlining. He showed no signs of anger or nervousness and was polite at all times. Even at the conclusion of the interview, after he had stated that he did not want to be interviewed further, he did not abruptly terminate the discussion. Instead, he remained long enough to exchange ordinary pleasantries which are a part of any normal conversational exchange.

The one single point which he insisted upon making was that he could not be "pressured" into discussing things which he did not want to discuss.

The interview was terminated without any indication that he felt hostile toward either of the interviewing agents.

III. DETAILS OF INTERVIEW

The details of the interview are set forth in the attached SF 64.

IV. EVALUATION OF INTERVIEW

The interviewing agents concluded that the subject, though courteous, was uncooperative. It was apparent that he would not furnish particulars of his Communist Party (CP) activities or associates. He clearly indicated that he was not telling the agents anything which he would not publicly acknowledge. It appears that he is in disagreement with the current CP leadership, but that he continues to be Communistically oriented.

V. PLANS FOR DEVELOPMENT AS AN INFORMANT

In view of the subject's attitude, as outlined above, it would appear that the subject has no potential as an informant at this time.

[REDACTED]

VI. FUTURE PLANS FOR INTERVIEW

Since the subject has clearly outlined his position concerning FBI interviews with him, and since it is not believed that he has any informant potential, no plans are being made to conduct further interviews with him at this time.

b6
b7D

The Bureau's attention is directed to page 4 of New Haven letter of reference wherein it is stated that interview with subject's wife, [REDACTED] would be conducted only if her husband were cooperative. It has, therefore, been assumed by this office that the authority for interview of the subject's wife, as set out in referenced Bureau letter, was contingent upon a cooperative interview with the subject. Since the subject was uncooperative, no interview of subject's wife, [REDACTED] will be conducted.

On the afternoon of 8/13/59, [redacted] was observed to leave his employment [redacted]. When it was observed that [redacted] was alone, he was approached a short distance from his employment by SAs ALFRED B. NOVAK and [redacted].

[redacted] immediately recognized the Agents and greeted them in a friendly fashion, remarking that he had not seen the Agents for a long time. [redacted] allowed the Agents to accompany him for approximately four blocks as he proceeded to the subway.

[redacted] advised that although he realized there had been many changes in the CP here and abroad, that his condition remained the same inasmuch as he could not, under any circumstances, talk with the Agents. [redacted] in answer to inquiry by the Agents, stated that he believed he was working in his own way for the benefit of the American people and not harming the US form of Government. Subject stated he is interested in socialism, and that there were many forms of socialism. He refused to comment on questions by the Agents if this meant that he believed that the USSR had a socialist government.

ReBulet 6/19/59, and NY report of SA [redacted] 6/29/59.

On 8/12/59, [redacted] was interviewed by surprise authority of SAC at her residence, [redacted] NY, by SAs [redacted] and JOHN J. MATTHEWS.

[redacted] admitted the agents automatically by a door-buzzer device from the floor above. She came midway down the stairway to a point about 12 feet away from the agents and demanded their identity and purpose which were immediately given to her. She replied that she did not wish to discuss any matter whatsoever with the FBI. The agents urged her to consider the beneficial aspects of an interview and to at least allow a presentation of their reasons why this was a distinct opportunity for her. [redacted] repeated she did not have anything to say to the FBI. She asked the agents to leave. Recognizing the futility of further discussion and abiding by her wishes, the agents departed.

By reason of her completely adamant attitude, [redacted] will not be contacted again.

In anticipation of obtaining a photograph of subject as set forth by lead in report, a concealed camera was on hand. Prior to the interview the agents waited in a parked car for a period of about one hour hoping to photograph [redacted] on the street. The sparsely populated neighborhood and curious attitude of residents made further surveillance untenable. A possibility existed of photographing [redacted] as she answered her door, but as described above, she did not place herself near enough or in a bright enough location to make a photograph practical.

However, it was observed that [redacted] reasonably resembles and can be readily identified by the older photographs of her already on hand. Therefore no further time will be spent in an effort to photograph [redacted]. She is described as: female, [redacted] 5'3" tall, 145 pounds, medium to stocky build, brown eyes, rather short dark hair greying.

On 8/17/59, SAs CHESTER A. REILLY and EDWARD W. BUCKLEY contacted the subject on the street some distance from his residence, [REDACTED] NY. The Agents introduced themselves by exhibiting their credentials and advising the subject that he was being recontacted to grant him the opportunity to confidentially discuss the CP, USA. Re Cleveland letter dated 6/10/59, and Bureau letter dated 7/1/59, granting authority to contact subject.

On July 24, 1959, a tour of subject's residence, [redacted] Ohio, was conducted by SAs [redacted] and [redacted] and subject was observed to be at home, and appeared to be alone, since no other members of his family were seen.

b6
b7C
b7D

At 2:10 PM, July 24, 1959, SA [redacted] attempted to interview subject, by surprise, at his residence; however, subject's wife, [redacted] came to the door. Agent introduced himself and asked to speak to her husband. With some hesitancy, Mrs. [redacted] replied that her husband had gone out of town for the weekend. Agent then advised Mrs. [redacted] regarding the purpose of desiring to speak to subject, referred to the previous contact with subject several years ago, and suggested that her husband may have changed his views during the intervening time. Mrs. [redacted] replied, "I'm sure he has nothing to say." Agent then suggested that Mrs. [redacted] might care to discuss her past affiliations with the Communist Party. She answered, "No, we have nothing to say," and allowed the door to her residence close, terminating the contact.

While subject was not personally contacted, it appears obvious that he was aware that his wife was speaking for him, just as he had spoken for her when he was contacted in August, 1956, at which time he replied, "We have nothing to discuss with you."

In view of the foregoing, no consideration is being given to recontact with the subject at this time.

A review of subject's file reflects that no information has been received which would support the inclusion of subject's name on the Security Index, with the possible exception of that furnished on April 21, 1959, by [redacted], who stated that she had been a member of the [redacted] the Communist Party in Cleveland during the period 1947-48, and knew subject and his wife as members of the Club at that time. Mrs. [redacted] also stated that in approximately 1956, subject had tried to recruit her and her husband into the [redacted] the CP in Cleveland, and that they refused to become active again, although they continued to visit socially with subject and his wife, and only recently learned from the [redacted] that they too had severed all connections with the CP. Since certain discrepancies in information furnished by [redacted] have been developed, relating to the time she admitted joining the CP, and inasmuch as she was uncertain about the year when she allegedly was contacted by subject to rejoin the CP, it does not appear that her unsupported information regarding subject should be made the sole basis for including subject in the Security Index.

The subject's case is included in the Communist Index of the Cleveland Division and was last reviewed March 30, 1959, and recommended for retention in the Communist Index.

This case is being placed in a CLOSED status in the Cleveland Division.

b7D

[redacted] politely acknowledged her identity and listened rather impatiently while the agents explained the purpose of meeting with her. She began walking toward the park, saying as she walked away, "I have no time to talk now." She obviously was flustered, and when asked if a later time might be more convenient, she said, "I don't know."

While explaining the purpose of the interview, the agents mentioned that it would be interesting to hear of her impressions of Russia in view of [redacted] recent trip. It is believed this thought may have intrigued [redacted] for she appeared to reflect momentarily on the idea although she made no comment.

By reason of [redacted] indecisive manner and because she said nothing to indicate a hostile attitude it is considered worthwhile to re-interview her. Therefore [redacted] will be interviewed again during the next 30 days.

ReBulet 7/15/59.

On 8/14/59, [REDACTED] was interviewed by surprise at his residence, [REDACTED] NY, by SAs J. WILSON MIRANDON and JOHN J. MATTIMORE.

b7D

[REDACTED] opened the door fully and inquired as to the identity of the agents without inviting them to step inside. The agents politely introduced themselves and [REDACTED] immediately slammed the door in their faces, shouting through the door, "You're wasting your time. Go away."

[REDACTED] became angry at the first mention of the FBI and did not show the slightest interest in what the agents might have to say to him. In view of his prejudice and hostility no further effort will be made to converse with [REDACTED]

By reason that subject was found at home at 11:00 am. on 8/14/59, his employer, [REDACTED] NY, was immediately pretexted by phone ("a friend of Mr. [REDACTED] calling") to ascertain if [REDACTED] might be on vacation. An unidentified employee of [REDACTED] advised SA MATTIMORE that [REDACTED] no longer works there and that his new employer is unknown.

b7D

Immediately thereafter the same pretext was used in phoning subject's father, proprietor of [REDACTED] who said [REDACTED] continues to assist him periodically. He was not familiar with the name of subject's new employer but understood that [REDACTED] now works a night shift.

Investigation is currently being conducted to determine subject's new employment.

On 8/10/59, [REDACTED] was contacted by surprise at his residence. [REDACTED] NY, by SAs JOHN J. MATTIMORE and THOMAS H. SULLIVAN.

When the agents identified themselves as being with the FBI, [REDACTED] stated he had nothing to say to the FBI. The agents explained they were contacting him for the purpose of helping him and in turn he could be of great assistance to the FBI.

b7D

[REDACTED] advised the agents that they were wasting their time, that he had nothing to discuss. He added that when he became a US citizen he took an oath to uphold the Constitution of this country. He also stated he has never viol ted that oath.

The agents reminded [REDACTED] of the responsibilities of the FBI in the Internal Security field, however, he commented that he was not going to answer any questions, nor did he have any information to volunteer. Again he informed the agents that they were wasting their time.

[REDACTED] at this point terminated the interview by closing the apartment door. The agents suggested that [REDACTED] give some consideration to what was discussed, but he answered that he would not do so.

Rebulet 11/18/58.

On 8/31/59 Special Agents Chester A. Reilly and Edward W. Buckley contacted the subject on the street some distance from his place of employment, [REDACTED] New York. [REDACTED] was cordial and friendly during the interview and he was advised that he was again being contacted to determine if he had given the matter additional thought regarding cooperating with the Bureau. [REDACTED] replied, "Gentlemen, I can't discuss anything and I'm not interested in any activity whatsoever but only interested in making a living."

[REDACTED] was asked if any Party leaders or former friends still active in the Party have contacted him regarding Party activity. [REDACTED] replied that he has not seen anyone and that he is not interested in anything except his position. [REDACTED] stated he could not discuss anything with the FBI since in his opinion the FBI knew more about Communist Party activity than he did. [REDACTED] remained firm in his refusal to allow the agents time to discuss anything with him.

b7D

The interview was terminated in a friendly manner with the agents suggesting to [REDACTED] that if the Party recontacts him he could feel free, if he so desired, to call the agents at the New York Office for a discussion.-X-

ReBulet, 11/18/58, suggesting reinterview of certain persons under the Toplev Program.

On 8/18/59, SAs THOMAS H. SULLIVAN and ALFRED B. NOVAK observed [REDACTED] walking toward his automobile which was parked about two blocks from his residence, [REDACTED] NY. as [REDACTED] neared the car, SA NOVAK approached and addressed [REDACTED] by name and displayed his credentials. [REDACTED] recognized the agent and nodded cortly.

The agent pointed out that nearly a year had elapsed since Bureau agents had talked to him and believed that he, like many others who had been active in the Communist Party, had undoubtedly undergone a change in his thinking. [REDACTED] replied that he had, but added, "Not the way you want". The agent suggested that it would be helpful if [REDACTED] would amplify his remark, explaining that this was an ideal time for him to demonstrate his loyalty to this country by cooperating with the government. [REDACTED] merely shook his head and entered his car, stating that he had nothing further to say. The agent advised [REDACTED] to give the matter further careful thought and to contact the LYO in the event he changed his mind. [REDACTED] nodded and drove off.

SA SULLIVAN observed the interview and nothing of an unusual nature was noted during the contact.

While not evincing any degree of willingness to cooperate, [REDACTED] did not display the brusque, abrupt manner he had shown at the time of the last contact. Accordingly his file will be reviewed in approximately six months to determine whether a contact with him is warranted at that time.

Interview with the Subject is being held in abeyance until plans to conduct a confidential investigative technique in the vicinity of the Subject's home can be completed under suitable and secure conditions.

It is to be noted that this investigative technique, which has been conducted quite regularly in the past, has been hampered recently by the fact that a 12 year old relative of the Subject has been visiting her for the summer. It is anticipated that he will be returning to his own home or if he remains with the Subject, he will be attending a local school starting 9-9-59.

It is felt that an attempt to interview the Subject might possibly affect the success of the highly confidential technique and, therefore, no effort will be made to interview the Subject until after the above-mentioned investigation is conducted in the vicinity of the Subject's home.

RE: Newark letter, 8/3/59.

On 8/26/59, SAS [redacted] and ELDRED W. COX contacted [redacted] under secure conditions at approximately 7:20 a.m., on [redacted] New Jersey. [redacted] was apparently en route to work. SA COX identified himself to [redacted] explaining he desired to speak to [redacted] for a few minutes. SA COX offered [redacted] a ride, pointing out it would save [redacted] time and also provide an opportunity for discussion.

[redacted] stated "No, you can't", and began to run. SA COX followed a few steps and asked whether they could talk at any other time. Without stopping, [redacted] shouted, "No". [redacted] continued to run until he was out of sight.

[redacted] would have to proceed on foot for approximately a mile to catch his usual bus to work. It would have been both convenient and time saving for him to have accepted the offer of a ride. Due to the emphatic nature of his refusal to be interviewed, no further contact with him is contemplated at this time.

Chicago airtel of 8-24-59 reports that [] a member of the [] Communist Party, USA (CPUSA), has been successfully converted into a security informant under the Toplev Program. [] a [] a college graduate with high intelligence. He is a former [] the Labor Youth League which prior to its dissolution [] the CPUSA. Until about a year ago he was on the [] CPUSA, and though he has not attended any meetings of the [] in the past year, he is still a member.

Under the Toplev Program informant was initially approached on 11-8-51 but refused to cooperate. Since 1951 he has been very active in the CP attaining membership on the []

[] During the past year it appeared he and his wife were gradually withdrawing from the Party. Chicago therefore requested authority to recontact him to determine if he could be developed as an informant. With Bureau authority informant was approached on 2-6-59 and indicated he was gradually withdrawing from the Party but he would never consider acting as an informant. Since he was definitely wavering in his allegiance to communism, additional contacts were carefully planned and finally after three interviews in the past few months, on 7-28-59 he became convinced that he should cooperate and furnish information to the Bureau. On the latter occasion he indicated he was financially pressed and agreed to accept a loan of $600 from the Bureau to be paid off in two years. He also agreed to follow a plan of action through which he would regain his former [] the CPUSA. Chicago has been guiding him into contacts with [] Claude Lightfoot, and Morris Childs. According to Chicago, informant is most cooperative and his potential is unlimited on both state and national levels. He has already attended a meeting of the Illinois [] and has been asked by the Party to take over [] the CP in Chicago. James Jackson, head of the National Negro Commission, contacted informant on 8-16-59 and [] All his contacts have expressed gratification in having him step up his activities in the CP and Chicago has been able to verify his activity through CG 5824-S and other sources.

OBSERVATIONS:

Tolson [] Development of [] presents a tremendous potential for additional coverage of CPUSA on national and international level which could equal that of our present top informants. Progress of informant will be []

Attempts to contact [REDACTED] by phone were made on 7/15, 16 and 22, 1959; however, he could not be located at his employment, [REDACTED] Illinois. It is noted that when interviewed on June 22, 1959, [REDACTED] requested that he be phoned for an appointment if the Bureau desired to contact him again.

b7D

On July 31, 1959, [REDACTED] phoned SA [REDACTED] and advised that he had received SA [REDACTED] messages. He stated he had not returned the Agent's calls because he had no time to work in an extra appointment. [REDACTED] stated he was busy with his work and planned to go on vacation from August 3, 1959 to August 24, 1959.

[REDACTED] advised that he would honor the Agent's request to meet with him when he returned from his vacation.

On August 26 and 27, 1959, [REDACTED] could not be reached by phone.

Attempts will be made to contact [REDACTED] by phone again so that an appointment can be made with him. It is believed that he should be given the "benefit of the doubt" in view of his professional status and because of his request to make an appointment with him by phone. If, however, he cannot be contacted by phone, and he fails to return the message left him, he will be contacted by surprise away from his employment and residence.

On 8/19/59, [REDACTED] was observed leaving his place of employment, [REDACTED]. He was approached in a secure location by SAS EDWARD W. BUCKLEY and CHESTER A. REILLY who identified themselves and advised [REDACTED] that they wanted to discuss an important matter with him. [REDACTED] replied that he was not interested in talking to the FBI about anything and did not know of any way in which he could help the FBI. The agents referred to the many changes in the CP in recent years and the defection of many of his former associates in the CP. He was requested to give the agents a few minutes of his time so that they could have a confidential conversation. [REDACTED] was polite but nervous and continued to shake his head saying, "I've got nothing to say. I can't help you." The interview was terminated when he turned and walked into a nearby shop.

Re: [redacted] 8/20/59.

On 8/19/59 a fixar was instituted in the vicinity of [redacted] residence, [redacted] New York. [redacted] is employed on the farm of [redacted] New York, drives to and from work each day leaving home at 7:30 a.m., and returning at approximately 5:30 p.m. Inasmuch as [redacted] wife, a [redacted] is employed and since their cottage is situated at the foot [redacted] the agents decided to contact [redacted] in the evening, about 100 yards from his cottage as he turned into [redacted]

At approximately 9:00 p.m., [redacted] was observed approaching [redacted] at which time the agents drove into the lane blocking the passage of his car. SA THOMAS H. SULLIVAN then walked back to contact the Subject while SA ALFRED E. DEWAS observed.

b6
b7C
b7D

[redacted] immediately acknowledged his identity whereupon the agent asked permission to open the front door of the car to speak to him. [redacted] obligingly opened the door and the agent entered. The agent then identified himself and [redacted] immediately assumed a hostile attitude refusing to let [redacted] to see to the FBI.

It was explained that he was a very important matter to discuss with him privately and he was in an excellent position to assist the FBI. He was also reminded of the Bureau's responsibilities regarding internal security matters. [redacted] again stated he had nothing to say and requested the agent to leave. The agent pointed out he was being given an opportunity to help his country which caused [redacted] to state, "If ever one was doing what I'm doing for my country, there would be no problem." [redacted] did not explain what he was doing for his country but he did not let the agent to go.

EVALUATION OF INTERVIEW

As soon as the agent identified himself Lustig clearly indicated he would not cooperate in any way with the FBI. He stated he had nothing to discuss with the FBI. He repeatedly requested the agent to leave. In view of the above no further contact is contemplated at this time.

ReNYlet 7/24/59.

After numerous efforts to contact [redacted] in the vicinity of his place of employment, [redacted] Pa., he was approached in the vicinity of his residence, [redacted] Pa., on 8/26/59, by SAs OTIS L. DUFFIN and WILLIAM F. McLAUGHLIN. After exchanging comments concerning the high humidity and heat of the day, [redacted] was asked if he had considered carefully the matters raised by Agents in the last interview with him.

b7D

[redacted] stated, "I have thought over all that has been said by you and I haven't changed my mind. I ain't going to give nothing and ain't going to get nothing. Nothing from nothing is nothing and I see no point in continuing our discussions."

[redacted] continued to be pleasant in manner and was informed that if he should change his mind that Agents would be glad to talk to him again at any time of his choosing. It was felt by Agents that further comment would not be appropriate and, accordingly, none was made.

b7D

Conclusion:

[redacted] has obviously made up his mind that he does not intend to cooperate with the Bureau at this time. Interviews with him have at least been productive in establishing in his mind a number of points which may disturb him in his Party work in coming months. Even though he has not cooperated he has continued to be friendly in manner and pleasant during all contacts by Agents. It is possible that after the expiration of several months, [redacted] could be persuaded to cease his Communist Party activity. In this connection informants have reported recently that he has not been as active as the Party leaders want him to be.

[redacted] was interviewed on August 31, 1959. During the discussion with him, [redacted] who speaks broken English, stated he had never heard anyone advocate the overthrow of the "government". He referred to capitalists as "bloodsuckers", and advocated supplanting capitalism in the U.S. by "socialism". He did not defend the one party dictatorship in the Soviet Union, and Soviet satellites, except to say that what those people do is their business, and does not concern him. He indicated he had no personal animosity toward the agent, but believed that the FBI should devote it's energies to the investigation of "crime", and should not be investigating "people". He approved of the forthcoming visit of KHRUSCHEV and advocated increased social, cultural and economic exchanges between the U.S. and the Soviet. He expressed the opinion that capitalism and communism should be debated on the same platform, allowing the "majority" of the people to decide which they preferred and deplored the virtual exclusion of the Communist point of view from public media. He approved of social security, unemployment compensation and the like and remarked that capitalists call these measures communistic. His statements were strongly anti-"capitalist" and pro-"socialist" and he vigorously defended his beliefs by arm waving gestures and platform oratory, partly in the Slovak language. At one point he remarked that he had once [redacted] but that he is no longer. After approximately twenty minutes of discussion the interview was amicably terminated when subject apparently felt he was talking too much and excused himself to return to his work.

Two additional subjects, [redacted] and [redacted] have been included herein for interview. [redacted] is closely affiliated with CP activity in the [redacted] and with the [redacted] reportedly has allowed his place of business to be utilized for meetings of the CP [redacted] in Cleveland.

including her reasons for joining and leaving the CP. She also furnished limited information regarding individuals with whom she has been associated in the CP. Mrs. [] made clear that she is through with the CP and has no intention of reactivating. She does not appear to possess informant potential, but may be recontacted at some time in the future for the purpose of obtaining additional information regarding her activities. It will be noted that [] was removed from the Security Index following above interview.

[] and her husband, [], SI subjects, were reinterviewed during August. They displayed a personally courteous attitude, but were uncommunicative regarding the CP. They indicated they had had no contact with anyone connected with the CP. No additional contacts with the [] are planned in the immediate future.

[] SI subject, was reinterviewed during August, at which time she engaged in a spirited defense of the CP and attacked the FBI for allegedly assisting deceased Senator JOSEPH McCARTHY. She continued to manifest cordial attitude towards agents, whom she invited to call upon her again. It is anticipated she will accordingly be recontacted for the purpose of ascertaining her attitude towards cooperation following additional discussions.

5. Progress and plans to implement the program:

Efforts to develop additional coverage in the Snohomish County through contacts with the [redacted] and [redacted] as noted above, were negative other than that [redacted] indicated a willingness to continue to be contacted by agents.

The attitude evidenced by [redacted] during reinterview indicates that the factual feelings engendered by the violence at the 1958 Fourth of July picnic of the Seattle CP has had lasting effects upon some of the members.

b7D

Activities in the Washington State CP and further developments in any factual strife or personal situations will be closely followed for opportunities in connection with the Toplev program. SECURITY MATTER (C)

Re: New Haven letter to Bureau dated 6-30-59.

As stated in referenced NHlet, several attempts were made to interview [redacted] under the Loyalty Program during May and June, 1959. It appeared to the Agents attempting this interview that [redacted] at that time was expecting an interview by Bureau Agents, and appeared to be taking precautions to avoid contact with Agents.

It is believed by the NHU that sufficient time has elapsed since the last Loyalty interviews were conducted in the New Haven area, and the Bureau is requested to authorize NHU to contact [redacted] for interview under this program.

Inasmuch as there has been no substantial change in [redacted] status since the submission of previous letters requesting authority for interviewing him, these details are not being re-stated in this letter.

The agents pointed out that in the light of the many changes that had taken place in the Soviet Union, the world situation and the CP in this country, he, too, had undoubtedly experienced a change in his thinking, and thus, this was an ideal opportunity for him to demonstrate his loyalty to this country. [redacted] replied that he was loyal to the U. S. in his own way, but when the agents urged that he clarify what he meant by this remark, [redacted] turned away and stated that he had nothing to say. The agents explained to subject that they were they knew he was in position to help this Government.

garding a matter of which he had no knowledge and asked if this was the same matter. The agents informed him that the purpose of this interview was to explore the possibilities of his helping the Government in its investigation of certain organizations that are dangerous to this form of Government. Thereafter, the agents briefly described the FBI jurisdiction in the security field.

b7D

Subject listened carefully and commented. He told agents and then stated that he believed he knew what the agents wanted but could not help them.

[REDACTED] in answer to inquiries by the agents, b7D [redacted] continued to protest that he could not aid the agents, and started waving the agents away. Subject had entered an auto bearing NY plates [redacted] and at this point, was starting the motor. When it became obvious that he would not continue the conversation, the interview was terminated by informing him to carefully consider this matter and to advise agents if he changed his mind. ReBulet 7/29/59.

[redacted] was interviewed on 8/27/59 at approximately 7:50 am., by SAs J. WILMER MIRANDON and JOHN J. MATTIMORE in the vicinity of [redacted] NYC. She was on her way to open her nearby luncheonette.

b7D Subject acknowledged her identity and listened politely but somewhat inattentively while the agents explained the reasons for meeting with her. Thereupon subject stated she did not care to discuss any matter with the FBI relating to the internal security of the US.

It was pointed out to [redacted] that a confidential talk would be beneficial to her as well as to the Government, and that another meeting could be arranged at her convenience under appropriate conditions. She replied rather emphatically that she did not think she would benefit in any manner from such a discussion and that she did not care to speak any further with the agents. She turned away and the interview was terminated.

[redacted] did not appear to harbour any grudge toward the FBI. She seemed to be intelligent and calm but completely opposed to any discussion regarding her activities or the CP. In view of the speculation that subject has somewhat curtailed her CP [redacted] affairs and might possibly be contemplating even less activity with the CP, it is believed worthwhile to engage her in conversation again in about 90 days. A period of a few months should allow further observation and evaluation of her conduct and may determine a change of attitude on her behalf.

b7D [redacted] is described as [redacted] female, [redacted] 5'3" tall, 140 pounds, medium build, grey hair cut short and straight.

All outstanding leads having been covered, this case is being placed in a pending inactive status.

[redacted] was interviewed with SAC authority on the evening of 9/3/59 by SA GERHARD P. HUNDT. The interview was conducted under secure conditions in the vicinity of [redacted] residence, while SA DONALD W. AARON observed the interview from a Bureau car nearby.

b7D

Immediately after SA HUNDT introduced himself to the subject, [redacted] stated "Why don't you guys leave me alone?"

SA HUNDT explained that in view of the changes that had recently taken place in the CP, it was felt that the subject's attitude might have changed too. To this [redacted] replied "Just leave me alone and don't bother me. I have nothing to say." He thereupon continued walking rapidly toward his residence and the interview was then terminated.

[redacted] was curt in his speech and obviously annoyed at the repeated attempts to interview him, inasmuch as he has been contacted on three previous occasions. He made it clear that he does not intend to talk to Bureau Agents and it is felt that unless unusual circumstances cause a radical change in his attitude, it would be fruitless to make further efforts to interview him in the near future.

ReBulet dated 8/17/59 authorizing interview of THOMPSON.

On 9/10/59 SA ELDRED W. COX contacted [redacted] under secure conditions in a public park in [redacted] N.J. SA RUSSELL H. HORNER was in a position to observe the contact.

b7D

When SA COX identified himself, [redacted] appeared startled and immediately stated that he did not wish to make any comment of any kind. He appeared desirous of breaking off the interview at once; however, he gradually relaxed and a forty-five minute discussion ensued.

It was pointed out to him that the CP is a detriment to the Negro people and is used to further the interests of the USSR. FBI policies and jurisdiction were explained, including Bureau policies on employer-employee relationships. The need for cooperation by public spirited citizens was pointed out.

For the first several minutes [redacted] confined his remarks to saying he would rather not comment or would rather not express any opinion he might have. At no time did he admit present or past activity in the CP, nor did he mention the name of any person in connection with the CP.

b7D

He did gradually express some opinions:

(1) That the threat within the United States was greatly exaggerated and distorted as far as Communism was concerned.

Similarly, the use made of FBI reports would necessarily be influenced by political considerations.

(3) That he could never, under any circumstances, serve as a "stool pigeon" for anyone, including the FBI.

Appropriate arguments were advanced in connection with the opinions he expressed, with special stress upon the difference between a "stool pigeon" and a citizen conscientiously cooperating with the FBI. Upon this point he remained adamant, claiming that his family history and his experiences in life had so firmly fixed his mind that he could never furnish information to any law enforcement agency.

In terminating the interview, the prospect of recontact with him was discussed. He asked that he not be recontacted. SA COX informed him that he might recontact him after he had had a chance to consider the matter for a few months.

REPORTING RESULTS OF INTERVIEW

Results of this interview will be set forth in the next report on [redacted] to the effect that [redacted] was interviewed, but neither admitted nor denied past or present CP activity, although he expressed the opinion that the threat of Communism within the United States was greatly distorted.

The agent identified himself to [redacted] and reminded him of their conversation several years ago. It was suggested to [redacted] that having recently returned from a trip to the Soviet Union his views may have changed and he might now be willing to have a confidential conversation with the agent. [redacted] smiled and replied that his views could be known to anyone who read the "MORNING FREIGHT". [redacted] said that when his views changed radically on any issue readers of the "MORNING FREIGHT" would be aware of it. This was done so as to avoid for you any possible embarrassment." [redacted] replied: "I am afraid of losing my job with union as he has stated that officials are strongly anti-unionist)" b7D When [redacted] was advised that to the contrary many of his activities were known to the Agents, he responded: "I suppose you mean my activity on the picket line." The Agents impressed [redacted] with the fact that they had no interest in his activity on the picket line but were referring to his activity on behalf of the Communist Party.

At this point the Bureau's policy in regard to labor and management was thoroughly explained to the subject.

[redacted] responded: "Look, I know you guys would be contacting me and I thought this all out beforehand. This is not an 'Emotional Outburst' on the spur of the moment. I speak good enough English so you understand me. I just want to be left alone and to have nothing to do with you. I can't make it any plainer."

It was pointed out to [redacted] that if he had reached a decision, before being contacted, of what he was going to say to the Agents, that surely that decision was made without the benefit of even this preliminary discussion and further, conceivably, he might alter that decision following only a brief discussion.

b7D "Discussion of what?" [redacted] asked. It was suggested that perhaps his impressions of his recent trip abroad would be a reasonable starting point. "So I save my hard earned money for a little vacation and now I must discuss it with the FBI, Goodbye".

[redacted] [redacted] could accept, but following several more pleasant exchanges, [redacted] advised that the Agents would be contacting him again. [redacted] replied: "Well that's your job. To do it right I guess you have to keep after people. I guess that's what I would do if I had your job." The interview terminated on this more friendly note. [redacted] declined however to shake hands with the Agents when departing.

b7D [redacted], during the interview, impressed the Agents as being obsessed with a hatred for anything and everything. It is believed that [redacted] conceivably, might cooperate with the Bureau if this hatred could be directed against the CP. [redacted] will be contacted again within 30 days.

On 9/28/59 [REDACTED] was contacted under the Toplev Program at her residence, [REDACTED] New York, by SAs P.T.P. J. LEIGHTON and THOMAS H. SULLIVAN.

SA LEIGHTON identified himself to the subject, who partially opened the door to her apartment, and explained that she was being contacted on a confidential basis concerning a matter relating to the Internal Security of the United States. Subject stated that she was not feeling well, had problems of her own, was not working and lived alone since her husband's death, and did not feel like talking to the agents. The agent expressed sympathy at the loss of subject's husband, and pointed out to her that they did have an important matter to discuss with her but if she was not well enough to talk to them they would gladly call on her again. Subject replied that she did not feel well, and it was up to the agents whether they wanted to come back. Subject was advised that she would be recontacted, and that it was hoped that she would feel better soon.

Although subject gave no indication of being willing to help the FBI she was very friendly and did appear to be suffering from a cold. Subject will be recontacted under the Toplev Program within thirty days and the Bureau advised of the results.

ReBulet, 7/29/59.

On 9/16/59, a field visit was conducted in the vicinity of subject's residence, [REDACTED], NY, by SAs PETER J. LEIGHTON and THOMAS H. SULLIVAN. At approximately 10:00 A.M., [REDACTED] was observed leaving her apartment alone. She was approached by SA SULLIVAN when she had walked about a block from her residence.

[REDACTED] acknowledged her identity, however, when the agent introduced himself as the subject inquired, stated she had nothing to say to the FBI.

b7D

The agent walked along with [REDACTED] explaining the duties and responsibilities of the FBI and the fact that [REDACTED] due to her experience and background, was in an excellent position to assist the Government.

The agent also commented on the factionalism that has developed within the CP and the fact that many people have changed their views with regard to the CP.

[REDACTED] clearly indicated she was not going to cooperate with the FBI. She repeatedly stated she had nothing to say to the FBI.

b7D

The agent made additional efforts to engage [REDACTED] in conversation, however, she would only say "Good-bye".

Evaluation of Interview

[REDACTED] was well-mannered and courteous, however, firm is her refusal to cooperate to any extent with the FBI. No further consideration is being given to recontacting her at this time.

Re Bulet 11/18/58, suggesting recontacts with subjects original interview under the Toplev program.

On 9/14/59, subject was observed in vicinity of her residence, [REDACTED] New York, by SAS ALFRED D. NOVAK and [REDACTED]. When it was observed that she was alone and a considerable distance from her residence, she was contacted on the street by the above agents. Mrs. [REDACTED] appeared to recognize the agents immediately and stated that she recalled talking to them a couple of years ago. Mrs. [REDACTED] stated that since last contacted she did not have any political activity whatsoever and that as far as she was concerned the Communist Party was a "non-entity." She stated that she did not believe that the Party had any influence whatsoever in the affairs of the United States.

Subject stated in answer to questions by the agents that she did not believe that the Communist Party as an organization was ever a danger to the American form of Government. She advised that during her contact with the Labor Movement, which she stated she terminated in approximately 1951, she had contact with many persons of various political ideals including members of the Communist Party. She stated that to her knowledge, none of the individuals which she contacted were dangerous to this form of government.

Mrs. [redacted] stated that at the present time she was only interested in her family as she is only a housewife. She further advised that her husband, [redacted] was employed in a job which took a great deal of his time and that he was away from home all day, getting home late in the evening and that she could not speak for him regarding his attitude towards the Communist Party. She added that her husband had no time to spend in any organization except his employment.

Mrs. [redacted] advised that she believed she was aware as to the agents' purpose in the contact and she had firmly made up her mind several years ago that she could never talk about individuals. The agents [redacted] pointed out to suggest that she was in the position in which she could give this government considerable assistance if she would come to the conclusion that the Communist Party in the United States was evil and should be exposed by every thinking American citizen. Mrs. [redacted] stated that she did not feel this way and that she could never bring herself to the point of talking to the government about persons "politically." The agents advised [redacted] that the Communist Party was not a Political Party as the Democratic or Republican Party, but had always acted as an arm of the Soviet Union. Mrs. [redacted] stated that she did not recognize it in this way and that she could not, under any circumstances, help the agents. ReNYlet 8/6/59.

On 9/22/59, a flur was conducted in the vicinity of [redacted] residence, [redacted] by SAs PATRICK J. LYNDEN and THOMAS P. WILLIAM.

[redacted] was observed to leave his apartment house and to walk west to Broadway in the direction of his employment. On [redacted] he was approached by SA WILLIAM. The Subject immediately recognized the agent as having contacted him previously.

b7D

The agent explained to [redacted] that he was being recontacted in view of the statements made by him during the last interview. It was pointed out that Meyer had stated he would do anything for his country and always had the interest of the U.S. at heart. The agent further stated that he as a representative of Subject's government was seeking his cooperation in a matter regarding the security of our nation. [redacted] was advised that due to his experience and background he was in an excellent position to demonstrate his loyalty to the U.S.

[redacted] reiterated how he had served his country in the armed forces in World War II. He further stated he has never done anything harmful to the U.S. As far as assisting the FBI he maintained there is nothing he could do to help.

The agent explained that Meyer was obviously insincere stating at one point he would do anything for his country and then concluding that there was nothing he could do to help. The agent then reminded Meyer that he had participated in CP underground activities for a period of three or four years, that he had assumed other identities in other localities and had used aliases in signing certain documents. He was told that such

On 9/15/59, a visit was conducted in the vicinity of [REDACTED] by SAs PETER J. LEIGHTON and THOMAS H. SULLIVAN.

At approximately 8:45 a.m., [REDACTED] was observed to leave the apartment house and to proceed in the direction of his automobile 3 blocks away. When he was approached by SA SULLIVAN he readily recognized the agent as having talked to him on 7/22/59.

b7D

[REDACTED] was advised that the agent's purpose in recontacting him was to determine whether or not he had given any additional thought to cooperating with the FBI. [REDACTED] immediately answered that there was no way in which he could help the FBI.

The agent then pointed out that [REDACTED] was certainly in a position to assist the FBI in view of his experience and background. [REDACTED] was reminded that in the past he has held responsible positions in the CP. The agent pointed out that [REDACTED] had served as [REDACTED] NY Sect. and had instructed at Party schools and consequently could assist the Government if he so desired. Again [REDACTED] stressed that there was nothing he could do to help.

The agent tried to convince [REDACTED] that it was his duty and responsibility to cooperate with the FBI, however,

The agents advised [redacted] that they felt he must have given the matter previously discussed considerable thought and that he must have come to a conclusion to aid the U.S. [redacted] At this time, [redacted] reached his auto and he hastily entered the car and stated that he had told the agents all he wanted to the last time and would make no further comment. The agents attempted to draw him in further conversation [redacted] refused to say anything. He thereafter started his car. When it became obvious that he would not continue the conversation, the agents advised him to consider the matter of cooperation with the Government and if he ever changed his mind to call the NYO. He refused to comment and the contact was terminated.

On 9/16/59, SAS [REDACTED] and ALFRED B. NOVAK observed [REDACTED] MI, approximately two blocks from his residence. As the agents approached, [REDACTED] recognized them and stopped and shook hands. [REDACTED] readily asked if there was anything new and if he could help the agents in any way. The agents assured him that he could very definitely help them, and although it was apparent that [REDACTED] had made his offer of assistance in a joking mood, the agents again painstakingly outlined the manner in which he could cooperate with them. They pointed out that his background and his associations made him ideally suited for rendering invaluable aid to the government in its internal security investigations.

[REDACTED] remarked that he just did not believe that he could be of any help, as he was solely concerned with making a living and taking care of his family. The agents advised him that they were quite certain that his task of earning a living and providing for his family could be materially lightened if he saw fit to cooperate with the government. [REDACTED] merely shrugged his shoulders and said he would get along as best he could.

EVALUATION OF INTERVIEW

When first approached, [REDACTED] exhibited an antagonistic attitude, and with armwaving gestures strongly expressed his views in support of "Socialism" against "Capitalism," and against the FBI investigating "people." He occasionally resorted to speaking in the [REDACTED] language. He does not speak English well, and apparently has some difficulty in understanding it. He did not at any time indicate that he had any doubts regarding the correctness of his views, and appeared unwilling to even consider any alternative to the establishment of "Socialism" in the United States. At the conclusion of the interview he expressed himself in a much calmer manner, and apparently feeling that he had said too much, terminated the interview by returning to his work.

In view of the foregoing, no consideration is being given to recontact with the subject at this time.

The subject's name is included in the Security Index of the Cleveland Office, and a report regarding the subject was last submitted on 4/8/59.

The results of the interview of the subject will be included in next report submitted and his case is being placed in a closed status at this time.

On 9/15/59, [redacted] was contacted on SAC authority for purposes of interview under this program. The contact was made by SA ELDRED W. COX on Goldsmith Ave., Newark. SA [redacted] was in position to observe the contact.

b6
b7C
b7D

When Mrs. [redacted] observed SA COX approaching, she appeared to surmise his identity, and at first kept her face averted and continued walking in the direction of her residence while the Agent identified himself and explained his desire to speak to her on a confidential basis. She finally faced Agent COX and declared she would not say anything. She firmly repeated this statement to every subsequent statement made by the Agent. The entire contact lasted approximately two or three minutes, and was terminated as she resumed walking toward her residence. It was clear that she had no intention of entering into any discussion.

Recommendation

In view of her non-cooperative attitude, no further contact with the subject is contemplated at this time.

Status of File on [redacted]

Report of SA PETER J. BARNES, JR., on [redacted] aka, SM-C, dated 7/9/59, set forth a lead to interview this subject. As this lead has been covered, the Newark file on her is being closed. Results of the interview will be set forth in the next annual report.

Re Los Angeles letter to Bureau, dated 8/28/59.

This is to advise that those individuals previously designated for re-interview or to be interviewed for the first time, have either been interviewed to date or else individual letters have been submitted to the Bureau setting forth that they would not be re-interviewed at this time for reasons of security to informants or other pertinent information.

As this office has previously indicated, there are a considerable number of individuals who qualify for interview under the Toplev Program and it is anticipated that individual requests will be made each month hereafter in those pertinent cases where the interview can be conducted without jeopardizing existing security informants. It is anticipated that within the near future, requests for interview under the Toplev Program will be submitted on the following individuals:

On September 25, 1959, [REDACTED] was approached by SA J. HILL and SA J. ALMOND for the purpose of conducting an interview under circumstances instructions relating to the Toplev Program. The approach was made along the concourse of the New York Port Authority Bus Terminal, New York City.

The Agents identified themselves as Special Agents of the FBI and suggested to the subject that he assist them to discuss certain matters in which his presence had been requested. [REDACTED] acknowledged his identity but hesitated only a moment before he was on his way to work and did not board his bus immediately. Before departing, [REDACTED] agreed to think over the solicitation made by the Agents. He was advised that he would be contacted again. [REDACTED] merely nodded that he understood. The interview was terminated when [REDACTED] joined a queue on the bus ramp.

On the morning of 9/15/59, [REDACTED] was observed on the street in vicinity of his residence by SAs ARNOLD M. KOVARI and [REDACTED]. When it was observed that he was alone and a discreet distance from his residence he was contacted on the street by the agents. The agents explained to [REDACTED] that they were recontacting him because they knew that he must have given the matter of cooperating with the Government considerable thought during the past two months and they wanted to recontact him to ascertain whether there had been any change in his thinking or if any question had come up in his mind which the agents could help clarify. [REDACTED] answered coldly that there had been no change in his thinking and that there was no way in which he could help the Government. [REDACTED] stated that the agents were wasting their time talking to him as there had been no information come to his attention which would be of value to the Government. The agents asked [REDACTED] if he recalled attending a Communist Party [REDACTED] in 1947. [REDACTED] replied that he had never heard of such a school. The agents asked if he had been a member of the [REDACTED] the Communist Party. He replied that he had never heard of this organization. On 9/17/59 [REDACTED] was contacted under the Toplev Program in the vicinity of his place of employment, [REDACTED] New York, by SAs PETER J. LEIGHTON and EDWARD E. BUCKLEY.

Subject was contacted for interview as he approached his [REDACTED] by SA LEIGHTON. Subject acknowledged his identity when called by name, and upon learning the identity of the agent asked why he was being contacted. The Bureau's jurisdiction in the Internal Security Field was briefly explained to the subject, and it was pointed out that because of his activity with the Communist Party he was being offered an opportunity to be of service to his country. Subject stated that he could be of no help and had nothing to say. At this point SA BUCKLEY joined the conversation, was introduced to the subject, and the subject was advised that it was hard to understand why he refused to talk to the agents as the denunciation of STALIN by the Soviet leaders, the revolt in Hungary, and the factional struggle in the CP, USA must have made the true nature of communism clear to him. Subject replied that he really did not have the time to talk to the agents; that he had to start work, and "I don't believe I can help you". Subject was asked to think this matter over; that it was very important to the Government as well as to himself, and he would be recontacted in the near future. The interview was terminated on a friendly basis.

In view of the above subject will be recontacted within thirty days and the Bureau advised of the results.

On 9/16/59 [redacted] was contacted under the cover name, [redacted] at her residence, [redacted]

[redacted] [redacted] [redacted] [redacted] [redacted] [redacted]

Subject acknowledged her identity when called by name, and upon learning the identity of the Agents refused to open the door to our apartment. It was pointed out to the subject that the Agents were in the vicinity of her apartment, and she was asked if she would open the door so they could discuss the matter with her. Subject refused to open the door and stated that they were in the vicinity of her apartment. She stated that she was not at home and that they should go away and leave her alone. Further efforts by the Agents to get the subject to open her door were not successful, and she was left with no response from her.

In view of the above no further contact with the subject is warranted. It is recommended that the subject be kept under surveillance and that the Agents be kept advised of any further contact with the subject.

b7D

On September 17, 1959, [redacted] was observed walking north on [redacted] on the west side of the street in the [redacted] approximately three quarters of a block from his residence, about 4:20 PM.

[redacted] was approached by SA WAYNE H. DRAKE and this was observed by SA [redacted] from a Bureau car, approximately 30 feet away. As [redacted] was being told of the Agent's identity and as the Agent attempted to show [redacted] his credentials, [redacted] stated "Don't bother", and [redacted] immediately continued north on [redacted] but now in a very fast walk. No further attempt to engage [redacted] in conversation was made.

Evaluation

It is noted that [redacted] left the contacting Agent before observing Agent's credentials. From this it would appear that [redacted] has no intention whatsoever in being engaged in conversation with Agents of the FBI. However, it is also pointed out that this interview was conducted in the vicinity of his residence and that [redacted] reaction could be attributed to this fact.

It is not believed that further efforts to interview [redacted] would be productive and for this reason, Chicago's case on subject is being placed in a pending inactive status.

ReBulet 11/18/58.

On 9/17/59 Special Agents Peter J. Leighton and Edward W. Buckley observed the subject to depart from her residence, [REDACTED] New York. After the subject was a secure distance away from her residence she was directly approached on the street by Agent Buckley, with Agent Leighton within earshot of the conversation. The subject immediately admitted her identity, remarking, "Who are you?" The agent introduced himself, exhibiting his credentials and advising her that she was being recontacted in order to grant her the opportunity to confidentially discuss Communism if she so desired. It was pointed out to her that many people in the Party whom she was formerly familiar with have changed their thinking in regard to supporting the Communist Party. The subject immediately retorted, "I'm not interested in what other people are thinking. I know many people have changed their minds but I'm not interested in discussing anything with the FBI--the FBI could do better by helping the poor people in New York City get better housing and living conditions." The agent advised that he would like to discuss this point with her if she so desired, and immediately she stated, "No, I don't want to discuss anything with the FBI. Go away. Leave me alone." She immediately turned and walked back towards her residence, remarking, "Go help the poor people." The interview was terminated when it was obvious that the subject would not discuss anything with the agent.

I. METHOD OF APPROACH

At approximately 12:10 p.m., on 8/23/59, the subject was approached for interview by SA THURL STALNAKER in the vicinity of the [redacted] Conn. The approach was observed by SA EDWARD R. WHALEN from a Bureau automobile, which was parked nearby at a point where all conversation could be overheard. The subject was contacted between the time that she left her place of employment and the time of her arrival at her automobile which was parked nearby.

II. SUBJECT'S REACTION

The subject when first approached appeared cordial. As soon as the interviewing agent identified himself she became extremely hostile and her anger was very apparent. The remarks that she made were obviously made in anger and as soon as she recovered from the surprise contact, she immediately drove away without further comment.

III. DETAILS OF INTERVIEW

The details of the interview are set forth in the attached SF-64.

IV. EVALUATION OF INTERVIEW

From the reaction of the subject, it appeared that she had no intention of offering any cooperation whatsoever. Based on a remark made by the subject during the interview, it would appear that she feels personal animosity toward the FBI. From her attitude, it would seem that she continues to be Communistically oriented.

b7D

V. PLANS FOR DEVELOPMENT AS AN INFORMANT

In view of the subject's attitude, as set forth above, it appears that she has no informant potential at this time.

VI. FUTURE PLANS FOR INTERVIEW

In view of the fact that both the subject and her husband, have been uncooperative in recent interviews, it is not believed worthwhile to attempt further interview of her at this time.

For your information, this matter is being considered closed in this office in view of the recent interview with [redacted] Indiana. [redacted] was the last of the individuals originally designated for interview.

This office had at one time intended reinterviewing [redacted] who was interviewed under this program; while not promising cooperation, he at least was friendly. Since then word was received by Agents at Gary that Mrs. [redacted] who was then engaged in work with [redacted] was the subject of scrutiny by members of the [redacted]. This inquiry was being made because of Mr. and Mrs. [redacted] reputation for having been active in CP affairs.

It is felt that this would be an extremely poor time to contact [redacted] especially since he has, in the past, spoken of what he considered injustices he and his family have experienced because of past associations with Communists. Should a more propitious time appear later, this office will notify the Bureau.

7. The subject was listed on the Communist Party (CP) [REDACTED] in 1937, and in 1940 he circulated [REDACTED] nominating petitions. Subject was [REDACTED] CP in Cleveland in 1942, and had been a CP member for several years at that time. He attended the Communist Political Association (CPA) Ohio State Convention in 1944; was elected a member of the CPA [REDACTED] in 1945; held CP meetings at his place of business in 1946; and contributed funds to the CP in 1948. [REDACTED] attended CP and CP sponsored functions from 1948 through 1952. In June, 1953, it was reported that he maintained a mimeograph machine at his place of business and had copies of "The Worker" and other CP propaganda available at his shop. The subject was a member of the IWO until 1953 and attended various functions sponsored by CP front groups from 1954 to 1958.

[REDACTED] was reported present at a meeting in September, 1957, which one source indicated was a meeting of the [REDACTED] of the CP in Cleveland. In [REDACTED] he attended a CP fostered meeting at which BEN DAVIS spoke. He also attended a CP sponsored banquet for ELIZABETH GURLY FLYNN in [REDACTED], and for GUS HALL in [REDACTED]. GUS HALL was observed to [REDACTED] in [REDACTED] September, 1959.

8. It is believed that an interview with the subject at this time will materially assist in determining his attitude toward the CP and conversely his attitude toward cooperation with the United States Government. It is further believed that should [REDACTED] prove to be cooperative during the initial interview, he would offer excellent potentialities with respect to further development as a Security Informant of this Office.

9. The subject will be interviewed by 2 Agents who are experienced in Security matters and in conducting Security type investigations. It is contemplated that the subject will be approached by surprise at his residence or at his place of business at a time when no other individual is present. In the event the subject exhibits a cooperative attitude, no effort will be made to direct his activities during the initial interview. The Bureau will be immediately advised of the results of the interview, and appropriate recommendations will be made at that time with respect to

On 10/7/59, a flsur was conducted in the vicinity of subject's employment, [REDACTED] NY, by SAS PETER J. LEIGHTON and THOMAS H. SULLIVAN. When [REDACTED] was observed she was approached by SA SULLIVAN.

[REDACTED] immediately recognized the agent as having contacted her on 5/25/59. She turned away from the agent stating she had nothing to say to the FBI.

b7D

The agent walked along with [REDACTED] attempting to engage her in conversation, however, she did not respond. She was asked to give the agent 5 or 10 minutes in order that she might fully understand the nature of the contact. The agent also emphasized the importance of the Bureau's work in the Internal Security field.

The agent pointed out that the purpose of the interview was two-fold inasmuch as [REDACTED] could assist the FBI and we could help her. It was explained that this was a splendid opportunity for her to demonstrate her patriotism.

On 10/7/59, [redacted] was interviewed by surprise at her residence, [redacted] NY, by SAs J. WILMER MERRADOCK and JOHN J. MATTHEW.

[redacted] did not invite the agents into her apartment. She asked the reason for their visit and listened politely but impatiently while the Bureau's obligations were explained. The possibility of aiding the Government concerning intelligence matters was presented to [redacted] while pointing out the beneficial aspects of such cooperation.

Subject declared that she had no time to speak with the agents. It was suggested that another time might be more convenient for her. [redacted] replied that in no case and at no time would she care to speak with the FBI. She then closed the door.

b7D

[redacted] maintained a polite attitude during the interview which she strained to maintain at the conclusion. By her conduct she pretended that meeting the agents was a novel experience. She smiled and spoke cheerfully. The impression gained from her interview is that [redacted] is an attractive, self-assured and rather intelligent woman who has no notion of either cooperating with the FBI or causing the FBI to believe she is aggressively antagonistic. It is not believed worthwhile to conduct any further interview at present.

The lead to interview [redacted] having been covered, the case is being closed.

III. DETAILS OF INTERVIEW

After the Agents identified themselves, [] said "Are you here to apologize to me." He was told that Agents were not there to apologize to him but were there to talk to him. He was then asked why he thought the FBI owed him an apology. He replied that the interviewing Agents had arrested him in his house, before his wife, causing him embarrassment and loss of money when the FBI knew he was innocent, which the court later decided.

He was told at that point that he was making untrue allegations and that his allegation would not stand up under examination. It was pointed out to him that the interviewing Agents did not arrest him, but that other Agents had arrested him. He was told that any embarrassment that he had experienced was the result of his own actions and not that of the FBI. He was further reminded that the court and jury had not ruled on the question of his guilt or innocence but that the jury had not been able to reach a verdict in his case.

At this point [] said "That little judge and the United States Attorney who you control trumped up charges against us or I would have never been arrested."

b7D

[] was then told that he was continuing to show a complete disregard for the truth. He was told that it was an outright misrepresentation to say that the FBI controls either the judge who heard his case or the United States Attorney who handled the Government's case against him. He was also reminded that no "trumped up" charges were made against him but that he was arrested and tried following his indictment by a Grand Jury.

[] who was extremely angry at this point, again stated that if the Agents were not there to apologize to him, he had nothing further to say. He then motioned for a bus to stop which bus was approaching from a distance and continued to walk away.

b7D

IV. EVALUATION OF INTERVIEW

From the reaction of the subject, it appeared that he had no intention of offering any cooperation whatsoever. Based on the remarks that he made, it would seem that he holds the FBI fully responsible for his arrest and trial under the Smith Act. He obviously has a great personal dislike for the FBI.

V. PLANS FOR DEVELOPMENT AS AN INFORMANT

From the subject's attitude, it appears clear that he has no informant potential at this time.

VI. FUTURE PLANS FOR INTERVIEW

It is believed that future contact should not be made with the subject unless some information is developed which would indicate he has changed his position. This office has no plans to contact him further at this time.

On 9/30/59, SAs [REDACTED] and ALFRED B. NOVAK observed [REDACTED] leaving CP Headquarters at 23 West 26th Street, New York City. When [REDACTED] was at a discreet distance from that address Agent NOVAK approached [REDACTED] and addressed him by name. [REDACTED] at first did not reply and when the agent repeated the name said "Why do you ask?" When the agent identified himself by use of his credentials [REDACTED] smiled and began to walk south along Broadway. The agent accompanied him explaining that he was being contacted in an attempt to secure his cooperation with the United States Government in connection with internal security matters and more specifically the CP. [REDACTED] then asked what reason there was to believe that he had anything to do with the CP. The agent pointed out that the FBI was in possession of information as to some of his past activities and associates in the CP and believed that because of his background he could be of assistance to the FBI, specifically in view of the recent changes in the world political situation.

When [REDACTED] asked why he himself was expected to have changed the agent pointed out that many people in situations similar to [REDACTED] had changed their views about the Soviet Union, the CPSU and the CP, USA as a result of the 1956 revelations about STALIN and the uprising in Hungary. The agent told [REDACTED] that people who had now come to the realization that the Communists had been misled in their thinking could be of invaluable assistance to the government by cooperating with its representatives at this time. b7D

On 10/6/59 [REDACTED] was observed in the vicinity of his place of employment, [REDACTED]. He was approached in a secure location by SA Chester A. Reilly, with SA Edward W. Buckley observing the contact. When the agent addressed [REDACTED] by name he calmly said, "I remember you very well, you are from the FBI." He then became very excited and in a loud voice said, "This is persecution. I resent it. The FBI has no right to do this to people." The agent pointed out that he had not had a chance to say anything and that the FBI did not persecute people. He was told that he was being contacted to give him an opportunity to have a confidential talk if he was so inclined. [REDACTED] excitedly said, "I'll never talk to the FBI. I'll never change my opinions. I am interested only in Armenia and I will never talk to the FBI about anything."

[REDACTED] walked rapidly away. He was very antagonistic during the short conversation and no consideration is being given for a recontact with him under the Toplev Program.

On September 28, 1959, the subject was approached by SAS J. WILMER MIRANDON and JOHN J. MATTIMORE for the purpose of conducting an interview under outstanding instructions relating to the Toplev Program.

b6
b7C
b7D

When approached, the subject, unaccompanied, was walking on [REDACTED] in the direction of his residence. He acknowledged his identity as MR. [REDACTED]. The Agents introduced and identified themselves as Special Agents of the FBI. The subject appeared startled. Following a suggestion by the Agents that he pause to discuss certain matters, he blurted out: "I don't have anything to say to the FBI". The subject made attempts to walk away. Other efforts to engage the subject in conversation failed as he refused to stand and listen. Finally [REDACTED] was advised that his true identity was known to the agents and that they desired to discuss this matter with him. They pointed out to the subject that they were contacting him in a confidential manner, on the street rather than at his work or residence. subject hurriedly entered the building wherein he resides. The interview was thus terminated.

b6
b7C
b7D

The following morning the subject called the New York office and spoke with the interviewing agent. He stated that he now desired to talk with the agents. An appointment was made to meet the subject that day at the entrance to a park located at [redacted]

SAC J. WILMER MIRANDON and JOHN J. MATTIMORE met with the subject at the appointed time and location. In a friendly but firm manner they greeted the subject. The subject, apparently taken back by this cordiality, shrugged off a handshake and replied "What's this, old friends week"?

The Agents directed the subject to a park bench where maximum security was afforded. The interview commenced. Almost immediately [redacted] started to explain his position which was little more than that he resented "harrassment by the FBI" and all he wanted was to be left alone. It was obvious from the manner in which he spoke that he had prepared these statements in advance.

b7C
b7D

The tone thus set, efforts were made to explain to the subject the jurisdiction of the FBI in matters affecting the internal security of the Country and that in no manner could the methods used in carrying out this responsibility be construed as harrassment. These efforts made no impression on the subject. The subject seemed to care little for what the agents had to say or for that matter to even comprehend. [redacted] appeared to be obsessed with the idea that he was being persecuted. He kept repeating that he had rights as a citizen and that the FBI had no business bothering him and he wanted them to stop.

b6
b7C
b7D

In the conversation that followed [redacted] would completely ignore direct questions or would reply with general and wholly unrelated answers. Some answers were as follows: "I see no reason why people can't have differences of opinion"; "The FBI are political police"; "I don't know anything about them(CP), if you want to know go up to their office and ask them"; "Stop harrassing me and my family"; "You represent the Government, the Government is the people, I'm people, so leave me alone"; "I'm just a small cog in a big wheel, all I want is my right to the ballot".

[redacted]

b6
b7C
b7D

Various efforts and appeals, made in an attempt to persuade [redacted] to soften his attitude and to more fully discuss his association with the Communist Movement, again were met with dis-jointed and totally unrelated and inadequate replies by the subject.

At one point [redacted] stated that he had started using the name [redacted] several years earlier to avoid what he termed FBI harrassment. When the inaccuracy in the date of the name change was pointed out to him and indeed the fact that the change occurred simultaneous with the establishment of the CP underground, which in itself seemed more than coincidental in view of his background, he replied: "What underground, I don't know anything about it". [redacted] stated further that he thought it was no crime to change his name and that he intended to have it legally changed.

b7C
b7D

[redacted] appeared extremely nervous throughout the interview. He continually folded his coat that he was carrying. He repeated several times that he had no more time and wanted to end the interview. He stated that he had cooperated as much as he was going to and that all he wanted was to be left alone. It was pointed out to [redacted] that his cooperation, if it could be called that, was certainly less than candid and was actually nothing more than an attempt by him to state his views for some reason best known to him. [redacted] stated that he would go no further than that in his cooperation.

Throughout the interview it was apparent that [redacted] had no intention of cooperating with the FBI. His obsession with the idea of persecution was so strong and apparent that it bordered on the neurotic.

b6
b7C
b7D

No further attempts to contact [redacted] are anticipated at this time. Information concerning this interview will be contained in the next annual report.

No recommendation is being made to delete the subject from the Security Index at this time. This action is based on the subject's attitude when interviewed coupled with the fact that his whereabouts, only recently determined, has not allowed sufficient time to actually determine his current sympathies and activities. A recommendation will be made at the time of the next annual report.

This case is being placed in a closed status.

b7D

In 1957, he was reported as [redacted] which was formerly known as [redacted]

In March, 1957, [redacted] attended the Reconvened NY State CP Convention and he was observed at this convention passing out copies of a resolution on the Jewish Question.

[redacted]

On February 3, 1957, he attended the CP National Convention at Chateau Gardens, NYC.

In May, 1957, he was observed at the Industrial Convention of the NY State CP which was held in NYC.

During 1958 and 1959, he was ~~been~~ observed at frequent intervals entering CP National Headquarters at 23 West 20th Street, New York City. It is noted that he was last observed entering CP Headquarters on 9/1/59.

During the early part of 1959, informants reported that the [redacted] was criticized by [redacted] of the CP for anti-Communist and [redacted] was one of the [redacted] who was criticized in this regard.

An informant has advised that [redacted] wife, [redacted], left the CP following the resignation of JAMES GATES in the Spring of 1959.

On September 16, 1959, [redacted] former NY [redacted] advised Agents of the NYO that he had called to [redacted] in March of 1957, during the NY State CP Convention, and at that time [redacted] was a GATES supporter.

Further Interviews

[redacted] was interviewed by Bureau Agents on July 12, 1960, under the Security Informant Program, and at that time, [redacted] refused to talk to the Agents, and was totally uncooperative.

b7D

On January 27, 1959, Agents of the NYO attempted to interview subject's wife, [redacted] at her home, [redacted] but was told by the subject, who answered the door, that his wife was resting and could not be disturbed. When the Agents asked if they could return later, the subject stated, "no, she would have nothing to say to you in any event". The subject then closed the apartment door.

[redacted]

Authority to Recontact

b7D

Although subject was uncooperative in January, 1959, in the presence of his wife, it is believed that he should be recontacted at this time, inasmuch as it appears that both he and his wife are "GAMES supporters". It is possible that [redacted] may now be disillusioned with the CP, and if interviewed alone by Bureau Agents, might cooperate with them.

Bureau authority is requested to interview [redacted] under the TOPLEV Program on the street when he is alone, and away from his residence and employment. Bureau rules applying to interviews with security subjects will be followed.

On 10/13/59 subject was contacted under the Toplev Program in the vicinity of her residence, [REDACTED] New York, by SA PETER J. LEIGHTON. SA THOMAS H. SULLIVAN observed this contact at a discreet distance.

Subject acknowledged her identity when called by name, and upon learning the identity of the agent stated: "I have nothing to say to the FBI." It was pointed out to the subject that in view of the many changes in the Soviet Union and the American CP since she was last contacted by Bureau agents it was hard to understand why she would not allow the agent to explain why he wanted to talk to her. Subject again stated that she didnot want to talk to the agent; turned quickly, and walked away at a rather fast pace.

In view of the above no further consideration will be given to contacting subject under the Toplev Program at this time.

On 10/20/59 subject was recontacted under the Toplev Program in the vicinity of her residence, [REDACTED] New York, by SA PETER J. LEIGHTON. SA THOMAS H. SULLIVAN observed this contact at a discreet distance.

The agent identified himself to the subject, asked if she was feeling better since their talk on 9/28/59, and pointed out to her that he had an important matter to discuss with her. At this point subject interrupted and stated that she had nothing to discuss with the FBI, did not want to be bothered, and for the agent to leave her alone. Subject was asked if she would at least allow the agent to explain the matter to her, that it would only take a few minutes. Subject replied in a rather loud voice; "Please leave me alone, I'm not well." Further efforts to engage subject in conversation were not successful, and subject was advised that if she changed her mind to call the New York Office of the FBI.

In view of the above no further contact with the subject is being considered at this time under the Toplev Program.

On October 21, 1959, Special Agents Chester A. Reilly and Edward W. Buckley observed the subject on the street in the vicinity of his place of employment, [REDACTED] N. Y. The subject was directly approached on the street by the agents, who readily admitted his identity and was cordial to the agents when they introduced themselves, exhibiting their credentials. [REDACTED] was advised that he was being contacted again in order to grant him the opportunity to confidentially discuss Communist Party activity if he so desired.

[REDACTED] cordially advised the agents that he had nothing to discuss with the FBI; that his answer is still the same as he previously advised the FBI; that he had no comment to make; and that his thinking was his own and no business of the FBI. The agents advised [REDACTED] that many things have taken place within the CP, USA, referencing the factionalist struggle within the Party plus other Party jealousies on the part of the CP leaders. [REDACTED] remarked, "Gentlemen, I know many changes and things have taken place, but I'm not going to discuss them with you fellows." [REDACTED] remarked that he could not see himself discussing anything with the FBI and that he was sorry he had to be on his way. Before the interview was terminated the agents advised him that if at some future date he has a change of mind and wants to discuss anything with this Bureau, he should feel free to communicate with this office.

b7D

The interview was terminated in somewhat of a friendly manner with [REDACTED] remarking, "Sorry I have nothing to say to you fellows. So long." No additional contacts are planned with [REDACTED] at this time.

Re NY letter 9/8/59, reporting first interview with [redacted] under the TOPLEV Program.

On 9/15/59, the Director's article "Breaking anonymously by regular mail.

On the morning of 10/13/59, [redacted] was observed to leave his employment, [redacted] NYC, by SAS ALFRED B. NOVAK and [redacted]. When it was noted that he was alone and was proceeding to his automobile which was parked a considerable distance away from his employment, subject was contacted on the street as he was about to enter his car. The Agents explained to [redacted] that they were recontacting him because they knew a man in his position might take some time to consider the matters which were brought up in the first interview and that the Agents were hopeful that he might have reconsidered and come to the conclusion that he could be helpful to the Government.
[redacted] replied that he had considered that there was no way in which he could aid the Agents at this time.
He protested that the Agents were wasting their time talking to him inasmuch as he would not discuss political activity with them. The Agents explained to [redacted] that it was not a waste of time because they were aware that he was in a position in which he could be quite helpful to this Government in supplying information regarding organizations which were unfriendly to this form of Government.

The Agents explained that they considered this a serious matter which he should carefully consider and examine his position carefully. Agents advised [REDACTED] that if he would examine his position carefully, that he would surely reach a decision where he would voluntarily agree with the Agents that it was his duty to aid the Government and by aiding the Government, he would also help himself.

[REDACTED] volunteered the information that he had received literature through the mail and that he had found it interesting but did not agree with its contents. When asked by the Agents as to what he did not agree with, he stated that he did not want to enter in any further discussion. At this point in the interview, [REDACTED] had entered his automobile and started the motor and appeared to be ready to drive away. The Agents again reminded [REDACTED] that they desired him to continue to give this matter careful consideration and that if he ever changed his mind, to call the FBI.

b7D

[REDACTED] refused to make any further reply and the interview was terminated at this point with [REDACTED] driving away.

Evaluation

Throughout this contact, [REDACTED] was friendly to the Agents but was firm in his refusal to cooperate in any way with the Agents. By his attitude and remarks, it is not believed that a recontact should be made with him at this time; however, the NYO will review his file in approximately six months to ascertain if a recontact might be desirable.

Remylet, dated August 31, 1959.

On September 4, 11, and 13, 1959 (Friday afternoons), [REDACTED] was phoned at his employment and efforts were made to arrange a meeting with him. On each occasion, [REDACTED] advised that he was too busy to be contacted.

On September 29, 1959, [REDACTED] was observed by SAs LELAHD G. RICHIE and WAYNE H. DRAKE leaving his residence at about 7:55 a.m. [REDACTED] car was parked in an alley adjacent to his residence, and as he neared his automobile SA DRAKE contacted [REDACTED] was advised that it was felt that the Bureau had complied with his wishes in not phoning him at his residence. [REDACTED] was also reminded that he had, in the past, agreed to be recontacted.

[REDACTED] stated it was true that he had put the agent off, but that he had nothing to discuss with the agent; however, he would go ahead with his agreement to be recontacted. [REDACTED] said he would be agreeable to be contacted on either October 9 or 10, 1959.

[redacted] advised that he had agreed to this interview because he wanted to use this opportunity to make his position very clear. He said that as a [redacted] he was only interested in the betterment of society. He said he liked to consider himself as completely objective. He said that, of course, this is an impossibility because of his own human limitations. He said that regardless of this he was attempting in his work to be as objective as possible.

[redacted] was advised that he certainly had every right to work as he pleased within the framework of our democratic society. [redacted] was asked, however, that he had not clarified his role with the Communist Party, USA (CP).

[redacted] stated he would not discuss the CP, and he then reminded the agent that at no time had he ever stated he was associated with the Party.

[redacted] was asked if he had discussed his first interview and his second contact with his wife. [redacted] said he was under no obligation to the Government and did not want to be in a position of obligation. He said he would, therefore, not comment whether he had discussed the other contacts with his wife.

b7D

[redacted] was asked if he did not already have a responsibility to this Government to help as a private citizen fight the international conspiracy of Communism. [redacted] stated that if he were the FBI perhaps that would be his job, but that he was a [redacted] society [redacted] He said his responsibility was to help [redacted] and not fight Communism.

[redacted] was asked if he would help or assist the Communist movement. [redacted] stated that he and the agent could continue for some time and never get together in their discussion. [redacted] said he had complied with the Bureau's desire to be recontacted, but that he would not agree to another interview. [redacted] said the only conceivable recontact of him would have to be on official business concerning another matter.

[redacted] then stated he was leaving, and the agent walked with him to the hospital.

The interview terminated at about 3:10 p.m.

Evaluation

[redacted] was again friendly during the entire interview. He also appeared more confident.

[redacted] is a member of the [redacted] CP.

III. Summary of Information Furnished and/or Services Rendered During Pertinent Period

The informant has been meeting regularly with [redacted] for the CP. Following the local CP meetings during June and July, it was decided by [redacted] the informant, and other active members in [redacted] that no more meetings should be held during the summer months in view of the unavailability of some of the members because of vacations and so forth. A recent meeting between [redacted] and the informant has indicated that monthly meetings will be re-instituted in the early fall. [redacted] continues her attendance at Upstate New York CP Conferences and the informant continues to be briefed by [redacted] relative to the thinking of the New York State CP group. This information has been most helpful in analyzing the local Party situation.

b7D

[redacted] the CP [redacted] who is also responsible for CP activity in [redacted] has been in [redacted] on at least one occasion during the reporting period and has indicated to [redacted] that every effort should be made to recruit more members into the [redacted] [redacted] has given out assignments for contact to the informant and others in an effort to create more local interest on the part of individuals who were formerly active in the local CP group. Besides giving [redacted] definite assignments for contact, [redacted] has discussed this matter periodically with the informant, utilizing the informant's suggestions on many occasions. The informant and [redacted] have not as yet had an opportunity to meet locally but the informant feels this is just a matter of time inasmuch as [redacted] had told [redacted] that he wishes to establish contact with the informant during one or more of his trips into the [redacted] area. It is felt that once these contacts are established that the informant will be able to carry out his job as [redacted] the local CP group more efficiently.

Informant continues to maintain contact with other leading members of the CP in [redacted] including [redacted] the latter contact serving as a check on the activities of [redacted]

b7D

The informant continues in his program of making contact with former CP members in the [redacted] area in an effort to [redacted] and as stated above, in an attempt to interest these individuals in local Party activity. The information furnished this office by the informant concerning these contacts is not available through normal investigative channels.

The informant continues as a member of the [redacted] [redacted] the NAACP and furnishes this office with the current status of the organization in relation to CP infiltration. [redacted] and other members of the local CP organization are also members of the [redacted] the NAACP.

The informant continues to furnish information regarding subjects of applicant type investigations and has during the reporting period characterized a number of formerly active CP members locally. During the reporting period the informant has formulated plans to reinstitute his visits to the Buffalo, NY area in an effort to establish periodic liaison with [redacted] a member of the CP [redacted] and others in the Buffalo area who are active in the CP and who are friendly to the informant. Two such visits were planned but not executed by the informant during the reporting period in view of illness suffered by the informant.

[redacted]

During the reporting period the informant has had contact with local CP functionaries and CP members and from them has obtained information relating to proposed plans for the local CP group during the forthcoming fall and winter months. This information concerns the part the local CP group will play in [redacted]

[redacted] and action by the local group in setting up study groups to discuss the Party's draft resolutions.

VII. Information Furnished of Unusual Value

During August, 1959, [redacted] learned from [redacted] that when the local group meets again in the fall of 1959 every effort will be made to direct the activities of the members toward [redacted] and setting up study groups for discussion of the CP draft program. It is felt that this information is of value because it affords this office the chance to place certain individuals in a position where they might be contacted for assistance by the CP, therefore increasing the possibility of additional informant coverage.

VIII. Approximate Number of Persons on Whom Informant Furnished Coverage, and Their Importance

Nineteen, including the CP [redacted] and other leading functionaries in the Buffalo area together with the leading functionaries in [redacted]. Also coverage was afforded on a current security informant serving as a check on his activities and the remaining members of the [redacted] CP. The informant has also reported on former leading officials and members of the [redacted] CP one of whom is a close personal friend and was the [redacted] CP member in the [redacted] area.

b7D

IX. Informant's Potential for Advancement

Excellent. The informant feels that he stands a better than average chance of assuming a position of importance in the local CP group. He is the [redacted] of the local group and it is felt that when contacts are established with the [redacted] CP [redacted] the informant will be in an excellent position to advance. The informant, because of his background and extensive knowledge of Marxism-Leninism appears to be in an excellent position to establish himself in a high level with the CP locally.

X. Stability and Reliability

No personal weaknesses, indications of instability, untrustworthiness, unreliability, or similar problems on the informant were noted during this period. Where possible, the information has been checked with and corroborated by other reliable sources.

[redacted]

The informant's wife continues to reside in [redacted] Pa., and there is no information to indicate when she intends to return to [redacted]

XI. Indoctrination Against Disclosure

Every opportunity has been taken to properly indoctrinate the informant against making any disclosure of his relationship with the Bureau through any media.

XII. Action Taken on Information Furnished

All necessary action has been taken and the information channelized or is in the process of channelization.

XIII. Miscellaneous

Informant is receptive to directions, submits clear, factual and complete reports, and has indicated on several occasions that if the opportunity presents itself, he would again accept the position of [redacted] CP. There is no reason to believe that the informant is anything but sincere in his feelings and it is felt that some time in the future he will [redacted] with the local CP organization.

b7D

XIV. Recommendation

That authority be granted to continue payments to this informant up to $125.00 per month for services rendered on a C.O.D. basis, plus up to $25.00 per month for expenses actually incurred for a period of four months effective 11/1/59.

The Toplev Program has always received the greatest of consideration by this office, in situations arising where and when we feel we can capitalize in any advantageous situation. This important project is afforded close supervision and as much time as possible is devoted to the preparation for and the conducting of interviews and reinterviews.

The Bureau may be kept advised of our progress, through our requests as they are submitted for approval of an initial contact or reinterview, as we always refer to Bureau file 100-3-99, in our communications.

So far as the Detroit Office is concerned, this Program has been a continuing project since its inception. We have always been alert to take advantage of all weaknesses of the individual communists to obtain additional potential informants in the CP, USA.

ReBulet 10/1/59.

On 10/22/59, [REDACTED] was interviewed by surprise at her residence, [REDACTED] NY, by SAs J. WILMER 'TRANSON and THOMAS H. SULLIVAN.

b6
b7C
b7D

[REDACTED] opened her door to the extent of a chain lock and refused to admit the agents. She listened attentively while the purpose of the interview was explained. Subject said she knew the agents had previously talked with her husband, [REDACTED] and that neither she nor her husband desired to cooperate with the FBI. She terminated the interview by closing her door with suddenness.

Subject has a rather attractive and youthful appearance. Her innocent expression might cause one to disbelieve her CP affiliations. She seemed interested in speaking with the agents, possibly because of curiosity, and she listened politely as the benefits of cooperating with her government were mentioned to her. She made no acknowledgment of her CP connection. Her sudden closing of the door seemed rather impetuous, probably because she may have realized she had by then listened to the agents for too long a period of time. It is estimated that subject allowed the agents to interview her for about four minutes.

Although subject was uncooperative, her willingness to listen, when she could have closed the door instead, leaves reason to believe a further interview is warranted. In view of her husband's prior inclination toward cooperating, it is believed a further interview of subject after she has discussed this interview with him, will more accurately determine her true character. An attempt to reinterview subject during the next 30 days will therefore be made.

An attempt was made to interview her under the Toplev Program on 12/20/55 but she was antagonistic and refused to engage in conversation. During [redacted] she made a trip to the Soviet Union and it was reported that she attempted to obtain [redacted] which she planned to establish. She is reported to be unemployed, and resides at [redacted].

b7D

No information has been received which would indicate a change of attitude on the part of the subject; however, in view of her past history as a Party "angel" a recontact with her may be warranted. The Bureau is requested for authority to recontact the subject pursuant to existing instructions relating to the Toplev Program. If such authority is granted she will be approached on the street away from her residence.

Names of Subjects Interviewed or Reinterviewed During the Month

During October, 1959, [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] was reinterviewed and although he was friendly with the contacting agent he was insistent that he not be recontacted by Bureau agents again and for this reason it is contemplated that he will not be recontacted for at least six months.

Number of Agents Assigned to This Program at This Time

During the month of October, 1959, there were five Special Agents assigned part time to the TOPLEV program in the Chicago Division.

Brief Comments Regarding Program
And Plans to Implement Program

This program is continuing to receive emphasis and close supervision in the Chicago Division. It is realized that the number of interviews pending under this program at this time is relatively small and it is anticipated that following the ~~Chicago~~ ^{SECTION} conventions where new officers will be elected and the Illinois State Convention to be held in November, additional names will be added to this list.

As pointed out in the past, all agents working Security are constantly reminded and kept alert for any possible interviews under this program.

head in the negative as the Agent approached. [REDACTED] stopped for a short period on the street and the Agent informed subject that he was being recontacted because considerable time had elapsed since the Agents last contacted him and they believed that a man in his position might take time to consider the matter of cooperating with the Government. [REDACTED] replied that he had considered but had reached the conclusion that there was no way in which he could help the Government. The Agent informed [REDACTED] that many persons such as himself had reached the conclusion that the U.S. Government was worthy of their support and that the Agent believed that if the subject would carefully examine his position that he also would come to this conclusion. [REDACTED] at this point, started walking again towards his employment and stated that he could see no value in talking to the FBI at this time or at any other time. He stated that he had formerly made up his mind that no useful purpose would be served by talking to the Agent. The Agent informed [REDACTED]

As he was entering the store, the Agent advised him to continue to give the matter thought and if he ever changed his mind to contact the FBI. On the morning of 11/3/59, [REDACTED] was observed to leave his residence [REDACTED] by SAS ALFRED B. NOVAK and [REDACTED]. When it was noted that he was alone, he was contacted by the agents. [REDACTED] acknowledged his identity and the agents identified themselves with credentials and informed [REDACTED] they desired a personal and confidential conversation with him.

[REDACTED] stated that he was in a hurry and could not talk to the agents at this time. Agents attempted to secure another time when they could talk to [REDACTED] but he refused to agree to another contact. The agents explained to [REDACTED] that the purpose of the interview would be mutually advantageous to both himself and the Government as it was known that he was in position to aid the Government. [REDACTED] again pleaded lack of time and walked away from the agents.

When it became obvious that [REDACTED] would not allow the agents any more time to converse with him the agents terminated the contact.

Throughout this contact, [REDACTED] seemed in a great hurry and it was noted when he left his residence he left at a fast pace; it is possible that he had a previous engagement on this date. [REDACTED] replied, "Not again! I can't do that while I'm walking. Go ahead and give your report."

Various efforts to provoke replies from [REDACTED] in order to obtain his name and conversation, failed. [REDACTED] continued to walk toward a nearby entrance.

[REDACTED] continued to walk, however, and when, in order to determine whether [REDACTED] was aware of the recent law banning communists or former Communist Party officers from holding positions of responsibility with labor unions, [REDACTED] replied, "Look, I know what's going on. I thought someone going to be friendly."
